Mrs. Fittro Entertains.
Mrs. Isa Fittro, of O'Neill, entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Wilsonburg Methodist Episcopal church at her home at Wilsonburg, on a recent afternoon. After the transaction of business and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Fittro. Those present were Mrs. O. C. Hannah, Mrs. O. J. Hannah and sons, Lowell and Corbin, Mrs. Charles Hollister and daughter, Margaret Mrs. Isa Fittro and son, Truman, the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Arnett and daughter, Iva Virginia, members; and Mrs. O. J. Gerard, Mrs. James Fittro, and son, Lewis, visitors.

Suffrage Tea Held.
About 250 guests attended the suffrage tea given by Mrs. Charles S. Smiley in her handsome home on East Main street from 3 to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The rooms were most brilliant with the grouping of clusters of the suffrage flowers everywhere, throwing a sunset glow on all the surroundings augmented by tall stately palms, maiden hair ferns and bouquets of the yellow flowers representing the Dawn and Victory of the campaign. A huge mound of the suffrage blossoms augmented by ferns formed the centerpiece of the table, where Mrs. Frank Haymaker poured coffee, and Mrs. Austin Smith presided at the tea table. Yellow pennants were gracefully grouped through the rooms.

Ladies Aid Meets.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant church met in the church Thursday afternoon. Arrangements were made to hold a baked sale once a month. There were expressions of regret over the loss of the services of the Rev. U. W. Morrison, who had been secretary of the society four years. Refreshments were served.

Dances Planned.
Plans were made Thursday evening for dances to be given by the Assembly Club for the winter season of 1916-17 and the following officers were elected to serve:
President—Lynn S. Horner.
Vice president—John Newlon.
Secretary and treasurer—Henry C. Alexander.

The dances will be given in the auditorium of the Masonic temple and will include three large assemblies, Thanksgiving, New Year's evening and Easter, and possibly some special smaller dances during the winter.

West Virginia Briefs

HUNTINGTON: The West Virginia State Hospital Association will meet in annual convention here October 11, according to announcement of the executive committee. It comprises officers, directors, physicians and superintendents of sixty hospitals in the state.

CHARLESTON: State supervisor of public schools, L. J. Hanifan, announces that eighty-five district school supervisors have been appointed for the present school year. The districts have been established in thirty-four of the fifty-five counties of the state. All the districts of the counties of Mingo, McDowell and Ohio have been supplied with supervisors and six have been appointed in each of these and Kanawha and Fayette counties.

CHARLESTON: West Virginia fire losses show a marked decrease, according to State Fire Marshal John S. Horan. Current statistics indicate the loss for 1916 will show a reduction of twenty to twenty-five per cent.

KEYSER: W. H. Holway, head of Berkeley Springs, was chosen head of the Ancient Order of Knights of the Mystic Chain of West Virginia, which has just closed its annual state convention here. P. A. Dixon, of Bayard, is secretary, and E. W. Edmonds, of Belington, treasurer. Wheeling was chosen for the next convention.

CHARLESTON: A certificate of incorporation has been issued by the secretary of state to the Beatty Development Company of Mannington, Marion county. The authorized capital is $42,000. The incorporators are Margaret A. Beatty, J. Fred Beatty, C. E. Beatty and L. N. Beatty, all of Mannington.

PARKERSBURG: Jacob M. Knapp, former secretary and treasurer of a local trust company, has entered suit in circuit court against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for $20,000 damages for injuries received in a wreck on the Ohio River division a year ago.

CHARLESTON: D. T. Evans, a Cincinnati coal operator, is said to have leased the mines of the Marmet Coal Company at Bernshaw. For some time this property, among the most valuable holdings in the Kanawha valley, has been in the hands of a receiver.

CHARLESTON: Claiming that fraud was practiced in certain precincts in the district of Logan county in which he was a candidate for justice of the peace, Ira P. Baer has been granted a writ of error and supersedeas by the supreme court of appeals in his case against William Gore.

WELLSBURG: Richard McQuillan, aged 20 years, fell beneath an electric coal train in the Rex Carbon Coal Company's mine at Cliftonville and was crushed to death. He was to have been married in a short time and announcements were out for the event.

CHARLESTON: "Bring back our family Bible and its records of births and deaths," says Dr. S. L. Jenson, state commissioner of health. He charges physicians are lax in observing the law requiring them to report these events promptly.

PARKERSBURG: The office of trainmaster, which was abolished some time ago, has been restored by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad here and F. C. Moran, inspector of transportation, has been promoted to the position. E. J. Langhurst has been appointed road foreman of engines.

CHARLESTON: Beginning Sunday, October 1, residents of Charleston will be required to pay more for their milk supply than they have ever paid before. Dairymen who recently formed an organization, decided to advance the price twenty per cent to purchasers of quart bottles.

WHEELING: Pleading guilty to the charge of shooting Henry Bartholomew, member of the Wheeling police force, who was endeavoring to arrest him, Samuel Priest, alias Samuel Trest, was sentenced to serve ten years in the penitentiary in criminal court here.

CHARLESTON: The constitutionality of the state statute empowering a water power company to condemn land will be the principal question to come up for consideration when the case of the Tri-State Power Company against the Virginia Power Company opens here on October 11. The case will be heard by Judges J. C. Pritchard and Charles A. Wood, of the United States circuit court of appeals, and Judge Benjamin F. Keller, of the United States district court for the Southern district of West Virginia.

WHEELING: The Pennsylvania railroad announces it will build a spur of twelve miles above Wheeling, which will tap a rich manufacturing and coal field.

CHARLESTON: In many counties in the southern tier of the state, stink weeds have done thousands of dollars of damage to valuable farm lands. The weeds in places have become so prolific that farmers will make an appeal to the next legislature to pass a law requiring their destruction.

WHEELING: Nellie Devinney, 18, is in the Ohio Valley General hospital suffering from blood poisoning contracted from a wound inflicted with an ice pick while preparing punch for friends.

CHARLESTON: Because of the activities of the political committees and candidates in West Virginia during the present campaign, the business of the majority of postoffices in the state has been increased. Not only in the cities where the various headquarters of the two major parties are located but in the smaller towns as well, the first class mail matter has increased in volume, with promise of even greater increases during the next five weeks, the postal authorities declare.

MORGANTOWN: The annual fights between the freshmen and sophomore classes at the University of West Virginia will be discontinued this year according to an agreement reached at a conference between the presidents of the two classes and Rex Hersey, head of the University Young Men's Christian Association. As a substitute, it was agreed to settle the differences between the freshmen with a series of contests which will include a pushball contest, a flag rush and perhaps a football game. Sentiment against the fights has been growing for years owing to injuries received by students but this is the first definite step taken towards dispensing with the annual encounters.

WHEELING: Peaches have hit a new low mark here. They are selling for $1.25 a bushel. The local crop was a failure.

CHARLESTON: The Virginian Power Company, through its general manager, H. G. Scott, has announced that its plant at Cabin Creek Junction which was damaged by the flood recently, will be made more important by the installation of two additional units of 20,000 horse-power each. The plant now contains two units of 10,000 horse-power each and to operate them uses $8,000 tons of coal annually.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA.
A Preamble. By the Governor, I, Henry D. Hatfield, Governor of the State of West Virginia, pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of said State, do hereby proclaim, announcing to the voters of the State of West Virginia, that on Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen, there will be submitted for ratification or rejection an amendment to the Constitution of said State as follows, to-wit:
PROPOSED AMENDMENT.
That Section twenty-three of Article eight of said Constitution as it now is be altered and amended so as to read as follows:

"Section twenty-three. The commissioners shall be elected by the voters of the county and hold their office for the term of six years, except at the first meeting of said commissioners they shall designate by lot, or otherwise, in such manner as they may determine, one of their number who shall hold his office for a term of two years, one for four years and one for six years, so that one shall be elected every two years. But no two of said commissioners shall be elected from the same magisterial district. But if two or more persons residing in the same district shall receive the greater number of votes cast at any election, then only the one of such persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, and the person living in another district who shall receive the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Said commissioners shall annually elect one of their number as president, and each shall receive four dollars per day for his services in court, to be paid out of the county treasury; provided, however, that said payment of four dollars per day shall not exceed the sum of four hundred dollars per year for each commissioner; and provided, further, that such compensation may be increased in any county by the assent of a majority of the votes cast on the question at any general or special election."

The proposed amendment is designated as "County Court Amendment" and on the official ballot to be voted at said election will be printed the following:

BALLOT ON CONSTITUTIONAL COUNTY COURT AMENDMENT.

Amending Section twenty-three of Article eight.

For ratification of County Court Amendment.

Against ratification of County Court Amendment.

Those favoring the ratification of said amendment will vote "For Ratification of County Court Amendment," and those opposing will vote "Against Ratification of County Court Amendment."

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol, this seventh day of August, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen, and of the State the Fifty-fourth.

HENRY D. HATFIELD.

By the Governor: STUART E. REED, Secretary of State.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

The 1916 tax books of the town of Adamston, are now in my hands, and all persons paying their taxes by October 14, 1916, will be allowed a discount of 2 1/2 per cent.
